Dear Sirs,

RE : Bill of Lading no. _____

With a view to speeding up the process of delivery of the Goods and avoiding the costs and risks of dispatch of the Bill of Lading to the consignee, we are asking you to issue this document at destination.

Subsequently, you have agreed, upon our express demand, to provide us with a copy of the Bill of Lading (front and back with the general conditions) as hereto attached.

Therefore, while we acknowledge having indeed received, read and approved the full terms and conditions stated in the Bill of Lading, including all mentions whether handwritten, typed, printed or stamped, and confirm that these terms and conditions fully bind us and while we further express our irrevocable and unconditional acceptance thereof by affixing our initials and stamp on both sides of the copy of the Bill of Lading hereto attached, without any reservation whatsoever, we now urge you to surrender the original copy of the Bill of Lading directly to the following consignee:

_____ name and details of the consignee _____
("the Consignee")

It is understood that this request is irrevocable and that by signing this Letter we waive any and all right to claim the delivery to us of any original copy of the Bill of Lading.

We also waive any and all right to contest your remittance of the original copy of the Bill of Lading to the Consignee or to claim any damages in connection therewith.

We of course understand that you will surrender the Bill of Lading to the Consignee at your convenience and without any undertaking to do so at a specific time and consequently waive any right or claim we may have against you, your agents, sub-contractors and/or servants by reason of any delay in the remittance of the Bill of Lading to the Consignee, howsoever arising.

We undertake to indemnify CMA-CGM, its agents, sub-contractors and/or servants, immediately and upon first demand, against any and all claims, damages or liabilities arising, directly or indirectly, by reason of the remittance of the original Bill of Lading to the Consignee.

We undertake to indemnify CMA-CGM, its agents, sub-contractors and/or servants, immediately and upon first demand, against any and all claims, damages or liabilities arising, directly or indirectly, by reason of the delay or failure of the Consignee or the holder of the Bill of Lading to take delivery of the Bill of lading and/or the Goods.

It is agreed that this Letter is part of the contract of carriage concluded between ourselves and established in the Bill of Lading as per the attached copy.

Yours Sincerely,
